

Fortuna sells an 8% stake in lottery to E-INVEST

Amsterdam/ Prague - Fortuna has signed the Share Purchase Agreement in which it agrees to sell an 8% stake in its lottery business to E-INVEST. The agreement was signed last week and in the near future, the change shall be recorded in the Commercial Register.

The companies had signed the Agreement on Future Agreement in May 2012 and agreed on cooperation in the lottery market in the Czech Republic. E-INVEST finally bought an 8% stake in the company FORTUNA sázky a.s., a subsidiary of Fortuna Entertainment Group. FORTUNA sázky a.s. currently operates numerical and instant lottery games through a network of around 6,000 points of sale across the Czech Republic. The company also provides additional services, such as mobile phone top-ups through with all main mobile operators.
